

Bonsall Parish Council

Minutes of the Bonsall Parish Council Meeting held on Tuesday 19th March 2024 at 7.30pm at Bonsall Village Hall

	will also recruit a second Lengthsman to assist Peter Spencer. Clerk to put notice Mutterings inviting interested people to apply for details and Job Description by 15th April (ready for discussion at the next BPC meeting). Cllr J Smith to put this on Village Matters. e) Lime trees in Churchyard: There was a discussion about the planned work. Clerk to chase up the tree surgeon who is to do the work of cutting back epicormic growth and removing dead branches. Clerk to gather quotes for a survey of the whole churchyard. Cllr Barry to forward details to Clerk of the tree surgeon he spoke to. f) The Cross: Cllr Grover and the Clerk met with a stonemason to discuss repairs to the Cross. He outlined potential issues around using hot lime (preferred by heritage bodies but will stain) as opposed to hydraulic lime. His gave a rough estimate of £5k. Clerk continues to chase Howletts for a quote. Cllr Grover has contacted various heritage bodies such as Derbyshire Historic Buildings trust and will continue to discuss the matter with them. Architectural survey will be carried out. Work is unlikely to begin before summer 2025 which leaves time for the necessary fundraising. g) Meeting with Sarah Dines MP: Chair reported that he and Cllr Grover met with Sarah Dines together with County Councillor Dermot Murphy. She spent time walking through the village and saw first-hand the state of the roads, chatting with residents about various issues along the way. h) Light at the Cross: The Clerk reported that National Grid had sent an estimate of £700 to disconnect the light. Clerk to check they have the correct light in mind. It was agreed that if this is indeed the cost it would not be viable to replace the light with a solar powered one. i) Defibrillators: Clerk reported that the overall cost to BPC so far for all the defibrillators is £300. R Taylor has confirmed that no further supplies are due until 2025 and that he and others will continue fundraising for on-going costs. The question of insurance was discussed and whether BPC should be responsible for this. Clerk to ask insurers what extra cost would be.	Clerk/JS Clerk/JB RG Clerk Clerk
